

Job description

Role title	Technician - Medical Radiology and Radiotherapy
Role location	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Miulli Hospital - Acquaviva delle Fonti (BA) - Mater Hospital - Olbia (OT)
Reporting to	Site Manager
Role duration	Permanent employment or freelance collaboration

Role purpose

Responsibilities:

- Programs, manages and provides the therapy activities in direct collaboration and according to the indications of the Clinical Radiotherapist team.
- Accompanies the patient during the treatment experience.
- Provides for the acquisition of individual patient positioning data and images, to facilitate the determination of target volumes and for the physical-dosimetric study of the treatment plan (simulation).
- Manages the auxiliary devices and ancillary equipments needed for the treatment.
- Manage the Linac to dispense the radiotherapy treatments according to the indications and due treatment plan, and is responsible for their correct application.
- Reports the data of each individual treatment.
- Participates directly to the Quality Assurance program by performing the operations of checking the efficiency of the equipment entrusted to him and of the ancillary systems according to the indications of the expert in medical physicist, including the setting-up of the systems before of treatments.

Requirements

Qualifications	Degree in Medical Radiology Imaging and Radiotherapy Techniques Registered in the Radiology Technician's Book (Ordine dei TSRM)
Experience	Desiderable, not essential
Other	Knowledge of the English language
Personal skills	Determination, flexibility, propensity for teamwork, work orientation for objectives and for the patient centricity.